

Roading Coordinator

- Based in beautiful North Eastern Victoria
- Attractive remuneration and benefits
- Work for a longstanding, successful company

HVP Plantations is a successful privately owned manager of extensive timber plantations across Victoria.

Our people are self-motivated, innovative and thrive working in a small team and a fast-paced environment. We value safety, regional communities, environmental care and sustainability. We pride ourselves in fostering an inclusive culture, one free of bias and rich in diversity.

Key responsibilities for this role:

The Roothing District Forester role is based in Myrtleford in North East Victoria and reports to the Harvesting Manager.

HVP has an extensive network of plantation roads in its Northern Region. The role is responsible for the planning, implementation and supervision of the Regions road construction and maintenance program.

The skills we are looking for:

- Sound knowledge and contemporary experience in road construction and maintenance in a forestry setting.
- Possess excellent communication and contractor management skills.
- Expertise in scheduling works and contractor negotiations are required as are budget management skills.
- Experience in managing quarries would be well regarded but not mandatory.
- A tertiary qualification in a related discipline is preferred.

On Offer is a supportive, flexible and collaborative environment that will provide you with ample opportunities to develop and demonstrate value along with;

- Work in a picturesque area with plentiful lifestyle opportunities
- Competitive remuneration and access to an incentive based payment system.

- Access to company vehicle
- Relocation assistance is available if required.
- As we are interested in your health and wellbeing, a fitness subsidy is available.
